53 further amended by inserting, at the end thereof, the following:- provided further, upon showing by 54 the prosecutor that a personal appearance by the victim will cause an unreasonable hardship on the 55 victim, the court shall permit the victim to exercise the right to be heard by submitting a statement
56 through audio tape or videotape to be heard or viewed before sentence or disposition is imposed;

57 SECTION 15. Said section 3 of said chapter 258B, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out 58 subsection (t) in its entirety and replacing it with the following new subsection:-

59 (t) for victims and witnesses, to be informed by the prosecutor about notification rights and the 60 certification process required to access the criminal offender record information files pursuant to 61 sections 172(c) and 178A of chapter 6. Individuals certified by the criminal history systems board, or,
62 in the case of a juvenile defendant, certified by the department of youth services, will be informed by 63 the appropriate custodial authority if the offender escapes from custody, receive advance notification 64 when the offender receives a temporary, provisional or final release from custody or is transferred 65 from a secure facility to a less-secure facility. Certified individuals shall provide the criminal history
66 systems board, or the department of youth services in the case of a juvenile defendant, with current 67 contact information;

68 SECTION 16. Said section 3 of said chapter 258B, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by 69 inserting, at the end thereof, the following new subsections:-

70 (w) for victims and witnesses who are minor children or adults with disabilities as defined in 71 subsection (k) of section 13 of chapter 265, as so appearing, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, 72 to have parents, a counselor, friend or other person having a supportive relationship with the victim or 73 witness, in addition to the victim witness advocate, remain in the courtroom during the child's 74 testimony unless, in written findings made and entered, the court finds that the defendant's 75 constitutional right to a fair trial will be prejudiced;

76 (x) for victims and witnesses who are minor children or adults with disabilities, as defined in 77 subsection (k) of section 13 of chapter 265, as so appearing, for prosecutors to provide an orientation,
78 as defined in this chapter, to the courtroom setting, court personnel, and rules of the court, to the extent
79 practicable under the circumstances;

80 (y) for victims and witnesses, to have a summary of the rights afforded under this section

81 conspicuously posted in any courthouse and in any police station. The victim and witness assistance
82 board, pursuant to section 4 of this chapter, shall devise and provide posters to satisfy this requirement 83 to any court and any police station, and, upon request and at the discretion of the office and board, to 84 any other institution or organization. The board shall develop the posters in a variety of languages as 85 determined by the Massachusetts office for victim assistance. Upon request, the board will respond, to 86 the extent possible, to any requests for additional language translations of the posters. The office and 87 the board shall cooperate with the Massachusetts disabled persons protection commission to ensure 88 that notice of victim rights is communicated to those victims and witnesses who are blind;

89 (z) for victims, to confer with the prosecution prior to the acceptance of a plea of guilty or 90 admission to sufficient facts. Before the judge accepts a plea of guilty, an admission to sufficient 91 facts, a disposition, or an agreed-upon sentence recommendation, the judge shall ask the prosecutor if 92 the victim has been consulted regarding plea discussions, whether or not the victim agrees or disagrees 93 with the plea discussions and agreement, if the victim was notified of the court date and is present, and 94 if the victim would like to assert their right to offer a victim impact statement;

95 (aa) for victims, to be notified by the prosecutor that they have the right to provide the sex
96 offender registry board with a written impact statement for inclusion in the convicted sex offender's 97 classification determination pursuant to section 178K(1)(k) of chapter 6. Upon the specific request of 98 the victim to the sex offender registry board, the board shall inform the victim of the sex offender's (i)
99 registration and classification status and (ii) the addresses of where the sex offender lives, works, and 100 attends an institution of higher learning regardless of the classification level and registration status of 101 the offender;

102 (bb) for victims and witnesses, to be informed by the court at the daily commencement of the 103 regular criminal docket at which accused persons are arraigned, that a summary of their rights is 104 posted within the courthouse;

105 (cc) for victims of the commission or attempted commission of violent acts, and others as 106 deemed appropriate by the responding officer, to be notified by said officer who has determined that a 107 crime has been committed, of their rights under this act. Unless the officer reasonably concludes that 108 it is not practicable to do so under the circumstances, he or she shall present a card prepared by the 109 Massachusetts office for victim assistance in consultation with the victim and witness assistance board
110 which includes, but is not limited to, a summary of their rights under this chapter and relevant referrals 111 to victim services and victim compensation.

112 SECTION 17. Section 8 of said chapter 258B, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in 113 lines 4 and 5, the words, “. The court shall impose an assessment of $50” and inserting, in place 114 thereof, the following word:- , and

115 SECTION 18. Said section 8 of said chapter 258B, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by 116 striking out, in lines 21-31, the words “In the discretion of the court or the clerk magistrate in the case
117 of a civil motor vehicle infraction that has not been heard by or brought before a justice, a civil motor 118 vehicle assessment imposed pursuant to this section which would cause the person against whom the 119 assessment is imposed severe financial hardship, may be reduced or waived. An assessment other than 120 for a civil motor vehicle infraction imposed pursuant to this section may be reduced or waived only 121 upon a written finding of fact that such payment would cause the person against whom the assessment 122 is imposed severe financial hardship. Such a finding shall be made independently of a finding of 123 indigency for purposes of appointing counsel” and inserting, in place thereof, the following sentence:-

124 Any assessment made pursuant to this section shall not be subject to waiver by any court for any 125 reason
